

QPF 2008 FILMMAKERS CHALLENGE

Entry Guidelines

- Entry is free.
- Two (2) copies of your film must be submitted, accompanied by a completed entry form.
- If multiple entries are submitted each entry must be accompanied by a separate entry form.
- A prize of $500 will be awarded to the winning entry. The judges may at their discretion choose to divide the prize between a number of entries.
- The maximum running time per entry is five minutes.
- Entries must be submitted on optical disc (DVD or CD) in QuickTime, DVD or AVI format. Non-interactive Flash animations are also acceptable. Entries will not be returned.
- Where multiple entries are included on a single disc each entry must be clearly indicated (e.g. by being placed in separate files or separate DVD chapters).
- It is the entrant's responsibility to ensure that they have appropriate permissions to use all material submitted.
- Entries will be screen at an open session which may be promoted to young adults. Accordingly, the judges reserve the right to reject entries that contain material that in their opinion exceeds the requirements for an Australian MA15+ classification.
- Entrants grant the organisers the right to screen entries during the 2008 Queensland Poetry Festival (22-24 August, 2008).
- Work that has been entered in or been awarded prizes in other competitions is eligible. However, the work must not be entered into any other competitions between the date of submission and the announcement of the winner at QPF 2008.
- Entrants must be residents of Australia.

Entries should be posted or hand delivered to:

QPF 2008 Filmmakers Challenge
Level 2, 109 Edward Street
Brisbane, QLD 4000

All entries must be received by close of business 20 June, 2008.

The decision of the judges is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
